Maison Leroy

Winemaker: Lalou Bize-Leroy

This prestigious estate created by Lalou Bize-Leroy in 1988 regroups the vineyards of the former Noellat and Remy properties: nine grand crus and seven premier's crus covering the best slopes of the Cote d'Or, from Corton to Chambertin. These wines are widely considered the epitome of Burgundy, unsurpassed in each vintage and in each terroir. To her biodynamic farming, Lalou brings a unique tasting experience, honed over fifty years buying wines for Maison Leroy, a negociant business founded by her great grandfather in 1868 - now a cellar of three million bottles - what some call Burgundy's Library of Congress. Each year Lalou selects wines from her collection that she deems ready to drink.

Tassi di Franci Franca

Franca Franci's Tassi winery was born almost twenty years ago. Out of respect for the territory originated the decision to begin the process of conversion of the azienda to organic farming, firmly determined to express itself through a craft production characterised by manual handling. From this approach were born two distinct kinds of Brunello: Tassi and Franci, two wines originating from distinct vineyards in order to preserve and promote the unique qualities of each. The Tassi vine - with a denser plantation of Sangiovese - produces a structured, fresh, elegant and fruity Brunello. The Franci vine is over 40 years of age and is more sparsely planted, giving form to a Brunello that is more complex, traditional, refined and full-bodied. The Riserva, made only in a few thousand bottles, is produced exclusively from the finest harvests. The winery also produces Rosso di Montalcino and IGT, and has recently acquired another hectare of vineyards and completed the construction of the new wooden cellar.

Casa Penta Tequila

Around 20 years ago, a winemaker and some close friends in Napa dreamt of a tequila that honored the history and tradition of agave-based spirits, while also introducing a refinement typically only seen in the wine world. That dream came true with the introduction of Penta, a tequila made by five partners inspired by the five noble grapes using agave sourced from all five Mexican states where agave for tequila is legally grown. Every bottle is the product of painstaking planning and endless attention to detail. The growing, sourcing, processing, yeast, barrel selection, aging and flavor profile are true labors of love.

Diamante Cristalino..... $450 per 6pk

Quick Facts: The Reposado tequila is filtered through charcoal to remove the barrel-aged color, producing a tequila that boasts all the personality of a reposado with the brightness and approachability of a blanco with the crystal-clear hue to match.

Resposado..... $570 per 6pk

Quick Facts: A full 6 months aged in a combination of barrels to develop a richer sipping style. Mellow, velvety and swirling with Penta's signature flavors of floral notes and bright citrus layered over vanilla, caramel, roasted brown sugar and sweet soil.
